Consolidated JGA Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA)

FY 2014 Juvenile Accountability Block Grants (JABG) Program

The District of Columbia Justice Grants Administration announces the availability of funds that will establish and maintain training programs for law enforcement and other court personnel with respect to preventing and controlling juvenile crime, programs designed to reduce recidivism among juveniles who are referred by law enforcement personnel or agencies, and to establish, improve, and coordinate pre-release and post release systems and programs to facilitate the successful re-entry of juvenile offenders from state and local custody in the community.

Eligibility: Qualified government and non-governmental organizations that are partnering with government agencies are eligible and invited to submit applications specific to the RFA funding priorities.

FY 2014 Title II Formula Grants Program

The District of Columbia Justice Grants Administration announces the availability of funds that will focus on supporting Compliance Monitoring programs, research, staff support, or other activities primarily to enhance or maintain a state's ability to adequately monitor jails, detention facilities, and other facilities to assure compliance with Sections 223(a)(11), (12), (13), and (22) of the JJDP Act; Delinquency Prevention programs, research, or other initiatives to prevent or reduce the incidence of delinquent acts and directed to youth at risk of becoming delinquent to prevent them from entering the juvenile justice system or to intervene with first-time and non-serious offenders to keep them out of the juvenile justice system. This program area excludes programs targeted at youth already adjudicated delinquent, on probation, in corrections, and those programs designed specifically to prevent gang-related or substance abuse activities undertaken as part of program areas 12 and 32; and School and Education programs and/or related services to prevent truancy, suspension, and expulsion. School safety programs may include support for school resource officers and law-related education.

Eligibility: Qualified government and non-governmental organizations that are partnering with government agencies are eligible and invited to submit applications specific to the RFA funding priorities.

For more information, contact Bridgette Royster, Program Manager at the Justice Grants Administration at (202)-727-5047 or Bridgette.royster@dc.gov.

FY 2014 Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant: Byrne/JAG Formula Grant Program

The District of Columbia Justice Grants Administration announces the availability of funds to focus on juvenile and adult reentry program components that provide employment training and job placement assistance based on the District's sector specific labor market.

Eligibility: Qualified government and non-governmental organizations that are partnering with government agencies are eligible and invited to submit applications specific to the RFA funding priorities.

For more information, contact Mary Abraham, Grants Management Specialist at (202)-727-1700 or mary.abraham@dc.gov
