Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA)

FY 2014 Community-Based Truancy Reduction Grant (CBTR)

The District of Columbia Justice Grants Administration (JGA) announces the availability of funds for strategies designed to address truancy in the District. Data-driven and scientific-based practices should be implemented to enhance attendance, and access to community based services for families of those youth who are truant prior to interventions by the Child and Family Services Agency (CFSA).

Eligibility: Only qualified non-government organizations with prior experience working with DC's child welfare, family services, mental health, substance abuse and/or educational agency professionals are eligible and invited to submit applications specific to the Request for Applications (RFA). Government agencies are ineligible under this RFA.

This RFA is released exclusively to target students with frequent unexcused absences and their families attending low-performing DCPS schools. Award numbers and amounts are dependent upon availability of local funds, and the quality of proposals designed to address truancy with adequate staff support and case management / wraparound practices for youth and families during school year 2013 - 2014. Eligible organizations must have capacity to serve targeted families by October 1, 2013.

The RFA will be available on Tuesday, April 30, 2013 at <http://jga.oca.dc.gov>. Submission deadline is May 31, 2013 at 3pm.

Questions must be submitted by email to Alexandra Caceres, Project Manager, Justice Grants Administration, at Alexandra.Caceres@dc.gov with subject reference "Truancy NOFA 2."
