

Housing and shelter. For the purposes of the OVS PMI, housing and shelter services are any services that provide victims of crime with safe housing or shelter, towards the overall goal of stabilizing the life of the crime victim and their family.

Goal	Outcome	How Measured	How Verified
To provide access to safe nights	Victim's need for safe housing is achieved.	Number of safe nights of housing provided            Target will be different for emergency and long-term transitional housing programs Number of unique NEW victims (primary and secondary) provided with housing services during the reporting period Number of unique CONTINUING victims (primary and secondary) provided with housing services during the reporting period What is the aggregate number of nights of safe housing provided during the reporting period? (Total nights of safe housing for victim 1 + total nights of safe housing for victim 2...) What is the average number of safe nights of housing provided to each victim served during the reporting period? (Aggregate number of safe nights of housing – from above – divided by unique number of victims served in reporting quarter)	Demonstration that grantee has a system that tracks the number of nights of housing provided to each victim. May include paper tracking (ex: Excel spreadsheets with both data points) or electronic tracking (ex: database with both data points)
To ensure the stability of survivor's future housing	Survivor achieves long-term stable housing	Completion of exit interview to determine type of housing in which the victim landed. Categories for measurement include: safe and permanent, safe and temporary, tenuous, shelter Of the number of victims who left housing during the reporting period, what number left housing for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Safe and permanent housing</li> <li>• Safe, but temporary housing</li> <li>• Tenuous housing</li> <li>• Shelter</li> </ul>	Demonstration of completion of exit interview which includes the type of housing in which the victim landed. May be kept electronically or on paper.

Housing and shelter. For the purposes of the OVS PMI, housing and shelter services are any services that provide victims of crime with safe housing or shelter, towards the overall goal of stabilizing the life of the crime victim and their family.

Goal	Outcome	How Measured	How Verified
To ensure the stability of survivor's future housing	Survivor achieves long-term stable housing	Determination of whether the victim returned to the housing program and/or experienced a new incident of violence within the year Of the number of new victims received into the housing program during the reporting quarter: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Number that had sought services from your agency during this fiscal year</li> <li>• Number that had sought services from another housing agency in this fiscal year</li> </ul>	Demonstration that the grantee program is able to track whether the victim returned to the housing program within the year.