

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
Executive Office of the Mayor
OFFICE OF VICTIM SERVICES AND JUSTICE GRANTS

Request for Peer Reviewers

Release Date: February 20, 2018

The District of Columbia Office of Victim Services and Justice Grants (OVSJG) is currently accepting applications for grant peer reviewers. OVSJG provides grants to District agencies and community-based organizations that provide services to victims of crime, justice involved individuals, and programs addressing juvenile delinquency prevention and truancy reduction. If selected, reviewers will have up to 30 days to read and score five to ten applications.

The grant application review process will be held May through August 2018.

Peer Reviewers will be compensated.

If you are interested, please submit an application to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/OVSJGPEERREVIEWER>. Applications are accepted on a rolling bases but priority will be given to those submitted by March 30, 2018 at 5:00pm.

OVSJG values the time and professional expertise of interested applicants.

Thank you in advance.

*Feel free to distribute to other potential peer reviewers.